THE SKETCHBOOK.....For Travel, Plein Air or Just for Pleasure!

DATE: Saturday November 14th and Saturday 21st 2020

Ever wanted to brush up on how to approach recording the sights, colours, jotting down a few notes when travelling around, sitting in the garden, down by the café?

This could just what you need to get you started on the road to creating a wonderful visual diary, painting small works in your sketchbook for future reference to produce a larger work or simply for your own pleasure·

Once you have painted plein air in your sketchbook, years later that moment in time will come flooding back, the temperature of the day, the sights, sounds and smells· The great thing about ceating a sketchbook is the total lack of pressure to produce a masterpiece! Simply live in the moment, relax and enjoy yourself·

We will begin in the studio and you will be guided step by step, we will be painting in the garden, by the nearby creek and we can wander down to the local café for a variety of subjects· Not a lot of gear is required, most of it you will already have·
